so, go to McElroy & Spitz and examine their line of revolvers, just received. All styles and prices.

There is a great deal of sickness throughout the county and a large number of deaths are reported. Typhoid fever is still raging.

See the large stock and low prices on cloaks, ties, skirts and millinery shown by Mrs. J. G.

Mansfield at same room occupied last spring.

Mr. J. R. Dean and Miss Lillie

Godfrey, a young couple from Merger county, were married in the County Clerk's office yesterday afternoon. Rev. C.

C. Pugh performed the ceremony.

Mr. CARTWELL, a stock buyer from Illinois, shipped out a nice bunch of feeding cattle for here Monday that he bought of Messrs. G. Dohoney, Zack Crow and Luther Burns. There were 31 head and they weighed 30, 25 pounds. The price paid was four and four and a quarter cents.

An effort is being made by the citizens of the Fenwick neighborhood to raise a fund for the purpose of building a church to be used for worship by the members of all the protestant denominations at that place. Subscriptions are being solicited and anyone feeling inclined to give will be contributing to a worthy cause.

Much interest is being manifested in the Grecian Art Entertainment to be given at St. Dominic Hall on next Tuesday evening. Mrs. Reid's entertainment has drawn large large audiences in the past and it is expected that the best of the state, and no one can afford to miss it. The "Dude Drill" will be the catch of the evening.

style.

PEARL CARRICO,

Vice Pres. Teachers' Ass'n.

The will of Mrs. Eliza Booker

Cornwall was probated at Louisville last week. She leaves the bulk of her estate as an endowment to the Norton Memorial Infirmary. To Paul J. Booker she leaves $3,000 bonds of the Louisville City Railway, to be held in trust for him and his daughters. To Miss Louise

Saunders she leaves five bonds of the same company. Several other small bequests are made to Louisville charitable institutions.

THE marriage of Mr. John S.

Yankey and Miss Francis Downing was solemnized at the Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The church was crowded long before the hour by friends of the couple, who had assembled to witness the ceremony. Rev. C. C. Pugh officiated and the attendants were Miss Katherine Rose and Mr. John Morgan. After the ceremony the wedding party and a few friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was given them. Mr. Yankey is one of Washington county's most successful citizens and his young bride is deservedly popular among all who know her. The News-Leader joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Yankey in offering congratulations.

JOHN SHIRLEY was tried before Judge Litsky on Monday last on a warrant charging him with contempt of court. It seems that Will Shirley, a son of the defendant, had been arrested for disturbing religious worship and had given bond for his appearance before Judge Litsky for trial at the place

Saturday. On Saturday Shirley and his son were in town, but it seems that the former had decided that he wished the boy to be tried in the country by Squire Hatchett, and as he had in the meantime obtained possession of all the papers in the case he took a change of venue, as it were, on his own hook and left with his son for home. Shirley acted as his own lawyer at his trial and at the conclusion Judge Litsky took the case under advisement. Up to the hour of going to press he had not rendered his decision.

Beautiful Entertainment.

Mrs. A. D. Reid, a very successful teacher of Physical Culture and Education, is drilling a class of our most beautiful and talented young ladies for a Grecian Art Entertainment at St.

Dominic Hall on next Tuesday night, Oct. 25, which promise to be exceedingly fine. The program will consist of recitations, drills, pantomimes, music, tableaux, etc. The "Dude" Drill by the young ladies will be a novel and interesting feature. The "Wagon Song" by ten bright children, will be very comic and instructive. Mrs.

Reid has been teaching in Kentucky twelve years, supporting an invalid husband and children, and the press of many of the large towns speak in the highest terms of her entertainments.

The Grim Reaper.

James B. Ryan, a well known and popular citizen of the county, died at his home near town Monday night last, after several weeks' illness of typhoid fever.

The deceased was about 35 years of age and had been an active and hard working man. He leaves a young wife and one child. The funeral took place yesterday from St. Dominic church and a large procession of friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

Mr. William Hardin, a well known citizen of the Beechland neighborhood, died Sunday and was buried at that place Tuesday.

Died, on the 12th inst., the eight-months-old boy of Mr. Collie Humphrey, who lives in the Beechland neighborhood.

The remains of Cuba Marks, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Reuben Marks, were buried here on last Saturday, the funeral being preached at the Methodist church by Rev. Lewis.

The child died of spinal meningitis at the home of her mother at Woodland, where they had recently moved from this place.

The 14-months-old daughter
